FREE PUBLIC EVENT: HIGH SPEED RAIL PROJECT

WHAT IMPACT MIGHT HS2 HAVE IN THE NORTH OF ENGLAND?

The University of Manchester,
Oxford Road, Manchester

Monday 17 November 2014 3-4.30pm

Find out about the latest developments concerning HS2 and its potential impact on the North of England when MPs from the House of Commons Transport Committee question Sir David Higgins, Chair of HS2 Ltd, at an oral evidence session in Manchester.

This is a great opportunity to see MPs on the select committee in action and also hear first-hand from Sir David as he answers their questions about the proposed new high speed rail project.

The evidence session will focus on:

- the latest developments of the HS2 project
- Sir David's recent report on high speed rail in the North of England

Evidence gathered at this event will inform the Committee's ongoing scrutiny of transport policy.
