NEW SERIES ANNOUNCEMENT

Transport, Mobilities and Spatial Change

Published in association with the Transport Geography Research Group (TGRG) of the Royal Geographical Society with the Institute of British Geographers

Series Editors: Professor Richard Knowles and Professor Markus Hesse

This Series provides an important new forum for cutting edge research into transport, mobilities and spatial change, for all modes, and at local to global scales. Analysis of transport policies, processes and behaviours that influence the movement of people, goods and information is essential in an increasingly globalized and urbanized world – not only since such mobilities are posing serious environmental concerns, but also as they have important repercussions for urban and regional developments.

If you have a proposal for a monograph or edited collection you wish to submit for consideration in this series, please contact:
