

The Road to Chartership – Progressing Your Career in Transport

Wednesday 27th March

Olivier Suite, Theatre Royal
Newcastle upon Tyne

Start: 17:15

Free Entry – please book your place with Sally Herbert:
sally.herbert@newcastle.gov.uk

Looking to advance your career in transport? Want to stand out from the crowd?

Chartership offers a path for you attain all of this as well to collect CPD and work experience, whether it is through the Transport Planning Professional (TPP) qualification or becoming an Incorporated or Chartered Engineer (IEng/CEng).

This evening, joint hosted by CIHT and TPS, offers a chance for transport professionals to listen to a series of presentations from people who have attained chartership to hear about their development paths and the benefits of being chartered. It also gives you a chance to get together in an informal setting to discuss networking and mentoring opportunities.

Agenda

17:15 Drinks, Pizza Slices and Reception

17:45 – 18:00 Introductions

- Chartered Institute of Highways and Transportation – Louise Evans, CIHT
- Transport Planning Society – Graham Grant, TPS
- Young Person's Network (North East) – Sally Herbert, CIHT North East Vice Chair

18:00 – 18:45 The Road to Chartership

- TPP Qualification Routes – Julia Gilles, TPP Reviewer
- Engineering (Eng) Qualification Routes – Roger Bird, Newcastle University

18:45 Networking & Discussion

There will be an opportunity to speak to all the presenters and recently qualified TPP and IEng candidates informally after the event to discuss any questions you might have about chartership routes, as well as the opportunity to discuss mentoring possibilities.