Transport Planning Professional (TPP) Introduction Seminar
Wednesday 16th September 2009
6.00pm – 7.30pm

Andrew Moseley (Waterman Boreham)

at: Arup , Small Mill office, Chadwick Street, Clarence Dock, Leeds LS10 1LJ

The Transport Planning Professional (TPP) Qualification was launched last year and is designed to provide professional recognition for Transport Planners at a level similar to that of Chartered Engineer. The qualification is awarded by IHT and TPS.

Andrew Moseley was one of the first candidates to be awarded the TPP Qualification in June 2008. At the workshop he will introduce the qualification, discuss his experiences in compiling a Portfolio of Evidence and undertaking the Professional Review. It is intended to be a session at which people considering the TPP qualification can learn more about the requirements and the overall process.

Spaces will be limited to the first 30 people on a first come first served basis.

Transport Planning Professional (TPP) Submission Workshop
Wednesday 23rd September 2009
6.00pm – 7.30pm

Andrew Moseley (Waterman Boreham)

at: Waterman Boreham, Vicarage Chambers, 9 Park Square East, Leeds, LS1 2LH

This is intended to be a workshop session for those people looking to submit their portfolios and sit the professional review in the near future. At the session candidates can discuss their portfolio and presentation with other attendees in preparation for the review.

Places are limited so please register by emailing andrew.moseley@waterman-boreham.com
